Speaker Tells Roadmasters of Companies They Lose When This Rule Is Not Followed.

EXPORTS TO CHINA REACH A HIGH MARK

United States Goes From Bottom to Top of the List.

The completion of a new treaty of commerce between the United States and China lends interest to some figures presented by the Department of Commerce and Labor, through its bureau of statistics. These show rapid growth in the exports from the United States to China, as well as in the percentage which merchandise from the United States formed of the goods imported into that country.

Our exports to China have increased from $1,101,282 in 1890, to $2,948,299 in 1896, $12,279,167 in 1900, and $15,922,200 in 1902. In 1902 the United States occupied fourth place in the list of countries from which China drew its imports. In 1890 the United States was practically at the bottom of the list. Great Britain, India, Japan and the United States are the chief rivals in the import trade of China.

SEASONABLE FOOD SUPPLIES ON MARKET BENCHES.

Business was dull in the markets today, except, perhaps, the fish market, which always has the call on Friday. The fish were fairly plentiful, though some of the prices were high. Trout was quoted at 12 1/2c to 15c a pound; Rockfish varied anywhere from 15c to 25c a pound. Bluefish were rather scarce, smelts still being about 25c a pound. Lobsters are good, and the supply sufficient. They are sold for 20c to 25c a pound. Oysters, which are now at the best, though not so plentiful as they will be later, nor so much in demand, still bring 20c to 25c a quart.

The supply of vegetables on the market today was scanty. It is hoped, however, that there will be a good line of stuff tomorrow. Cabbages run from 5c to 8c. Peppers sold today at 3 for 5 cents. Winter squash are plentiful and bring 10c to 20c. Potatoes were rated at 8 cents a quarter of a peck. It has been predicted that even the turkeys will be few and far between this year. At present they are scarce enough and bringing 15c to 20c a pound. It is probable that there will be more wild duck on the benches tomorrow.

Eggs show no change in price. It seems that they have reached a high price early in the season and will stick there. Meats were practically the same as yesterday.
